

Year 5 Knowledge Organiser- Who stood up to the Romans?

Vocabulary Dozen

armour	protective covering for the body
Boudicca	The leader of the Iceni tribe
conquer	defeat
invasion	the attack a country
sandals	a lightweight shoe with straps over the foot soldier	member of an army
tribe	a group of families living in one area. They are ruled by a chief.

BBC Roman Britain

Roman Empire

Key Knowledge

Who were the Romans and where did they come from?	The Romans were people who lived a long time ago. They came from a city called Rome in Italy.
How and why the Romans they come to Britain?	They wanted take Britain's land and precious metals.
Why were the Romans successful?	Roman soldiers had strong armour to keep them safe. They trained a lot to fight in battles.
Who fought the Romans in England?	A leader called Queen Boudicca decided to fight back. Queen Boudicca was the leader the Iceni Tribe .
Who fought the Romans in Scotland?	Severus – A Roman Emperor Severus was the first African emperor of Rome.

My name is Julius. I am a Roman.

