

Why aren't teapots made of chocolate?

Home learning challenge

Invent a new material explaining its properties, how it could be used and how it is better than what we currently have.